Chapter 1 by jeffyb

High noon was approaching. We both stood there, about twenty paces away from each other, gazing into each others' faces. There was no turning back. The whole town was watching.

Through our clown makeup, sweat was beginning to pool on our foreheads. The whole circus was watching. This was going to end today.

The bell struck twelve and rang throughout the massive pavilion tent.

From our holsters we drew.

Bang!

Our banana guns blazed. I was faster. She now had a thick coat of banana paste all over her face and chest. I was never more full of life than at that moment. Or aroused for that matter.

Chapter 3 by intellikat

Later that night we passed one another at the shower tent. I was going in, she was coming out. I noticed some banana paste behind her ear and I licked at it gently. She giggled and asked if I wanted to meet her inside the giant cannon. I did.

thought hit me when suddenly 2 clowns were flying through the air.

Lucky for me, the trapeze was there. I reached out and grabbed it. Timing was on my side. Then with my other hand I grabbed Daisy, the other clown, by her clown shoe. As I was hanging on for dear life, I noticed that there was a net below so I released my grip from the trapeze. We hit the net and bounced around like we were on a trampoline.

What fun. Daisy wanted to do it again to which I said "only if you go out on a date with me after the show" She agreed...
